ARISE 2006

“Then the angel spoke to the women. ‘Don’t be afraid!’ he said. ‘I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He isn’t here! He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying. And now, GO quickly and TELL his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there. Remember what I have told you.’” – Matthew 28:5-7

Easter Sunday is a time of reflection; a time of praise; a time of worship; a time of remembrance; a time of celebration! Jesus Christ has risen just as he said. For over 2000 years, Christians have understood the power portrayed when our Lord conquered death by rising from the grave to life.

Yet there is a sense of urgency with the angel who spoke to the women at the tomb, and with the risen Jesus himself as he commissioned his disciples just a short time later, that Christians seem to have lost. This year's theme, Rising to the Call of Evangelism, is to remind us that we have a story that needs to be told.

The story of Jesus is more powerful than any that Hollywood could produce. We know that story. We live that story. Is it our joy, our passion to TELL that story? Please join us Easter Sunday as we celebrate that story.
